

The HERC Book Club 2018-2019

The Holocaust Education Resource Council (HERC) Book Club eagerly anticipates the start of its seventh year. Its primary purpose is to foster a greater understanding of the history of the Holocaust, including its origins and processes, as well as to promote good relations among diverse groups within our community. The public is always welcome and encouraged to participate.

Four books are selected this season and discussions will be held on the second Thursday every other month from September through March. All meetings will be held at at Midtown Reader at 1123 Thomasville Rd. from 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm. Books are selected by a volunteer committee and professional educators and religious leaders facilitate the discussion and provide historical background. The selections for the 2018-2019 season are:

HERC Book Group at Midtown Reader at 1123 Thomasville Road • 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

“Suzanne’s Children”

by Anne Nelson

September 13, 2018

A story of courage in the face of evil. The tense drama of Suzanne Spaak who risked and gave her life to save hundreds of Jewish children from deportation from Nazi Paris to Auschwitz.

“Underground In Berlin”

by Marie Jalowicz Simon

January 10, 2019

A thrilling piece of undiscovered history, this is the true account of a young Jewish woman who survived World War II in Berlin.

“My Grandfather Would Have Shot Me”

by Jennifer Teege

November 8, 2018

The New York Times bestselling memoir hailed as “unforgettable” (Publishers Weekly) and “a stunning memoir of cultural trauma and personal identity” (Booklist).

“Neighbors”

by Jan T. Gross

March 14, 2019

Revealing wider truths about Jewish-Polish relations, the Holocaust, and human responses to occupation and totalitarianism, Gross’s investigation sheds light on how Jedwabne’s Jews came to be murdered—not by faceless Nazis, but by people who knew them well.

HERC encourages all book club participants to join HERC and help fund teacher training for Holocaust studies in our schools, as well as offer special programs to the community throughout the year. A membership form may be obtained at the HERC Web site listed below.
