

Education Matters. Building Bridges

To all I wish well at this challenging time. As school continues in the best way for everyone, Holocaust education is important as the Legislative Bill was signed to add more accountability for all school districts. Teachers need to get the best resources with on line training programs. The virtual programs are ways to reach more educators than an in person event.

The last work-shop was presented to 30 teachers on July 27th by Dan Leshem, Holocaust Scholar and FSU Hillel Executive Director, that featured the book Man's Search for Meaning with film discussion about movie Denial. It is timely as so much can be learned from sheltering due to Covid. Both of these resources gave teachers new lesson guides and ways to approach Holocaust education with limited time.

Consider giving any amount to help cover the virtual training programs. That would be so very appreciated during this special needs time.

The books make understanding this subject the best way possible.

We will inform you more soon about expanding the virtual programs to meet the needs of teachers and community.

Thank You for Your Support.

"Rebirth After the Holocaust: The Bergen-Belsen Displaced Persons Camp, 1945-1950"

Wednesday, August 5, 2020

3:00 – 4:00 pm

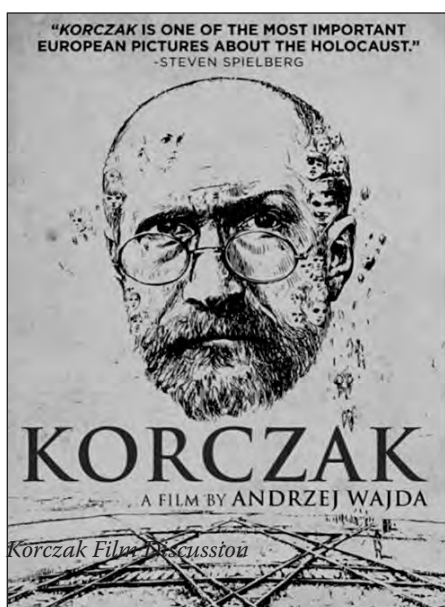

The largest Jewish refugee camp in post-war Germany, this vibrant self-governed community's political, cultural, religious, educational, and social activities renewed the survivors' return to life and played a pivotal role in the struggle for the creation of the State of Israel. Through archival film, photographs, and documents, learn how the survivors' resilience and optimism offer us stories of hope and healing for our day.

Over 2,000 children of Holocaust survivors were born in the Bergen-Belsen Displaced Persons Camp; Kindergarten class, late 1940s
