

Holocaust Education Workshop

Featured Presenter: Alexandra Zapruder

Tuesday, September 9th, 2025 • 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Location: Aquilina Howell Building
(3955 W Pensacola St, Tallahassee)

Registration is Required

FREE Parking, Breakfast and Lunch will be Provided

DEFIANT REQUIEM

In this workshop, educators will be introduced to Defiant Requiem: Verdi at Terezin, the little-known but meaningful story of Jewish conductor Rafael Schächter and a group of prisoners in the Terezin ghetto during the Holocaust who learned to sing Giuseppe Verdi's Requiem Mass as an act of creative resistance.

SALVAGED PAGES: YOUNG WRITERS' DIARIES OF THE HOLOCAUST

Award-winning author and editor of Salvaged Pages: Young Writers' Diaries of the Holocaust, Alexandra Zapruder will introduce teachers to the educational resources designed to support the teaching of Holocaust history for middle and high school classrooms. Participants will also get access to the classroom-length documentary, Defiant Requiem: Verdi at Terezin, as well as supporting resources. This program is available for educators and is suitable for social studies, ELA, music and art teachers, among others. Participants will be eligible for three professional developmental hours.

*To Register and for Further Information,
Please Contact: Barbara Goldstein at barbara@holocaustresources.org*

This Program is Presented by

Celebrating 20 YEARS

In Cooperation with

The
DEFIANT REQUIEM
Foundation™

Click Here to Register

www.holocaustresources.org